

What an expert does

What written sources say

LITERATURE. Sullivan et al. 2014 (3 surgeons, 1 procedure): 73% of decision steps and 71% of clinical-knowledge steps omitted.

Chao & Salvendy 1994 (6 programmers): no single expert reported more than 41% of diagnostic actions.

Reporting bias: written text under-reports the obvious, even when the writer knows it.

 Expert activity (trace)

 Appears in written sources

 Absent from written sources